

Representations of Algebraic Groups and Quantum Groups

Thursday March 12 — Friday March 13, 2020

Workshop at Department of Mathematics, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, VA.

Organizers: Dan Nakano (University of Georgia), Andrei Rapinchuk, Weiqiang Wang.

All talks are in Monroe Hall 122.

Followed by an AMS special session on “Representations of algebraic groups and quantum groups: a tribute to Cline-Parshall-Scott (CPS)”, Charlottesville, Virginia, March 13–15, 2020.

This workshop celebrates the work of G.T. Whyburn Professor of Mathematics Brian J. Parshall and his collaborators. In the course of his career, together with Ed Cline and Leonard Scott (CPS) as well as with others, Brian has made important contributions to the representation theory of algebraic and quantum groups. The workshop is held on the occasion of Brian's retirement.
